Sente Joint Resolution 15

To amend article IV, section 13 of the constitution, relating to eligibility of military officers for the legislature (2nd consideration).

WHEREAS, at the general session of the legislature in the year 1963 an amendment to the constitution was proposed and agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the 2 houses, which amendment reads as follows:

“(Article IV) Section 13. No person being a member of congress, or holding any military or civil office under the United States, shall be eligible to a seat in the legislature; and if any person shall, after his election as a member of the legislature, be elected to congress, or be appointed to any office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat. This restriction shall not prohibit a legislator from accepting short periods of active duty as a member of the reserve or from serving in the armed forces during any emergency declared by the executive.” Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the foregoing amendment to the constitution is agreed to by this legislature; and, be it further

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE [Feb. 10, 1965]

Resolved, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to a vote of the people at the election to be held on the first Tuesday in April 1965, and if a majority of the voters thereon approve this amendment, it shall become a part of the constitution of the state; and, be it further

Resolved, That the question of the ratification of the foregoing amendment be stated on the ballot as follows:

"Shall section 13 of article IV of the constitution be amended to permit a legislator to remain a member of the legislature even though called for short periods of active duty as a member of the reserves, or while serving in the armed forces during any emergency declared by the executive?".

Was read a third time.

The question was: Shall the joint resolution be adopted?

The ayes and noes were required and the vote was: ayes, 26; noes, 3; absent or not voting, 3; as follows:

Ayes—Senators Bice, Busby, Carr, Christopherson, Dempsey, Draheim, Hansen, Hollander, Keppler, Knowles, LaFave, Leverich, Lorge, Lourigan, McParland, Meunier, Panzer, Rasmusen, Risser, Roseleip, Schreiber, Schuele, Smith, Sussman, Thompson and Warren—26.

Noes—Senators Kendzierski, Krueger and Zaborski—3.

Absent or not voting—Senators Benson, Leonard and Miller—3.

So the joint resolution was adopted.

Ordered immediately messaged to the assembly.

Senate Joint Resolution 12

Relating to the eligibility of military officers for the legislature. (2nd consideration.)

The joint resolution which had been laid aside temporarily earlier was considered at this time, upon motion of Senator Zaborski, with unanimous consent.

Senator Lorge rose to a point of order that the joint resolution could not be acted upon as the like material in the joint resolution had been adopted.

Senator Kendzierski rose to a point of order that this point of order by Senator Lorge related only to bills.

The president ruled that the joint resolution was properly before the senate for action.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE [Feb. 10, 1965]

Senator Knowles moved that the vote by which the senate refused to reject the joint resolution be reconsidered.

With unanimous consent, Senator Knowles withdrew his foregoing motion.

The joint resolution was ordered engrossed and read a third time.

Upon motion of Senator Zaborski, with unanimous consent, the joint resolution was considered for final action at this time.

Senate Joint Resolution 12

Was read a third time.

The question was: Shall the joint resolution be adopted?

The ayes and noes were required and the vote was: ayes, 12; noes, 17; absent or not voting, 3; as follows:

Ayes—Senators Christopherson, Hansen, Kendzierski, Lorge, Lourigan, McParland, Risser, Schreiber, Schuele, Sussman, Thompson and Zaborski—12.

Noes—Senators Bice, Busby, Carr, Dempsey, Draheim, Hollander, Keppler, Knowles, Krueger, LaFave, Leverich, Meunier, Panzer, Rasmusen, Roseleip, Smith and Warren—17.

Absent or not voting—Senators Benson, Leonard and Miller—3.

So the senate refused to adopt the joint resolution.

Senate Joint Resolution 17

Was read a second time.

The joint resolution was ordered engrossed and read a third time.

Upon motion of Senator Knowles, with unanimous consent, the joint resolution was considered for final action at this time.

Senate Joint Resolution 17

To amend article VI, section 4 of the constitution, relating to abolishing the offices of coroner and surveyor in populous counties.

WHEREAS, at the general session of the legislature in the year 1963 an amendment to the constitution was proposed and agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the 2 houses, which amendment reads as follows:

“(Article VI) Section 4. Sheriffs, coroners, registers of deeds, district attorneys, and all other county officers except judicial officers and chief executive officers, shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties once in every two years. The offices of coroner and surveyor in counties having a population of 500,000 or more are abolished at the conclusion of the terms of office during which this amendment is adopted. Sheriffs shall hold no other office, and shall not serve more than two terms or parts thereof in succession; they may be required by law to renew their security from time to time, and in default of giving such new security their office shall be deemed vacant, but the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of the sheriff. The governor may remove any officer in this section mentioned, giving to such a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in his defense. All vacancies shall be filled by appointment, and the person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold only for the unexpired portion of the term to which he shall be appointed and until his successor shall be elected and qualified.” Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the foregoing amendment to the constitution is agreed to by this legislature; and, be it further

Resolved, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to a vote of the people at the election to be held on the first Tuesday of April 1965 and if a majority of the voters voting thereon approve this amendment it shall become a part of the constitution of the state; and, be it further

Resolved, That the question of the ratification of the foregoing amendment be stated on the ballot as follows:

“Shall section 4 of article VI of the constitution be amended to abolish the offices of county coroner and county surveyor in counties having a population of 500,000 or more?”

Was read a third time.

The question was: Shall the joint resolution be adopted?

The ayes and noes were required and the vote was: ayes, 29; noes, 0; absent or not voting, 3; as follows:

Ayes—Senators Bice, Busby, Carr, Christopherson, Dempsey, Draheim, Hansen, Hollander, Kendziorski, Keppler, Knowles, Krueger, LaFave, Leverich, Lorge, Lourigan, McParland, Meunier, Panzer, Rasmusen, Risser, Roseleip,

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE [Feb. 10, 1965]

Schreiber, Schuele, Smith, Sussman, Thompson, Warren and Zaborski—29.

Noes—None.

Absent or not voting—Senators Benson, Leonard and Miller—3.

So the joint resolution was adopted.

Ordered immediately messaged to the assembly.

Senators Knowles and Leverich stated that had they been present when the vote was taken for the confirmation of the appointment by the Governor of Walter J. Cole and the appointment by the Governor of James R. Morgan at last Thursday's session, February 4, they would have voted "Aye" for confirmation and they secured unanimous consent to have their statement entered upon the Journal.

Senator Keppler called attention of the senate to the fact that February 6, 1965 was a jubilant day for Senator Roseleip because on this day an eight pound 4th grandson and 8th grandchild of Senator Roseleip, to be named Miles John McGettigan was born at the Darlington Memorial Hospital and that the proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. John McGettigan.

Upon motion of Senator Keppler, with unanimous consent, the senate resolved that today's adjournment would be in honor of the birth of Miles John McGettigan.

---

GUESTS INTRODUCED

Senator Knowles informed the senate that it is honored by the presence of Mr. Norman L. Christianson from Roberts, Wisconsin.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE [Feb. 10, 1965]

Upon motion of Senator Knowles and in honor of the birth of Miles John McGettigan to Mr. and Mrs. John McGettigan, the senate adjourned until 10:00 o'clock Thursday morning, February 11, 1965.
